CONTEMPORARY LYNX Magazine + BFLMPSVZ Publishing

Invite for a 'SUMMER OF LOVE' at the HIVE STUDIO

Hive Studio: 22 Smeed Road, E3 2NR (Hackney Wick), London

Private View: Friday 28 July, 6 pm – 9 pm

Open Studios: Saturday 29 and Sunday 30 July: 12 pm – 6 pm

Contemporary Lynx Magazine in collaboration with BFLMPSVZ Publishing will be part of the Hackney WickED Festival / Hackney Wick & Fish Island Open Studio DIY in London. Join us for a weekend with contemporary art, live performances, photography, self-published books and music.

Find us at the Hive – a performance and project space located in a Victorian factory, where we will be presenting our artistic programme created in collaboration with international emerging artists.

Final copies of Contemporary Lynx Magazine will be available to purchase along with photobooks and other artistic publications.

Discover with us the creative community of Hackney Wick – the area of the highest concentration of artists in Europe with post-industrial warehouses full of street art.

Participating artists:

Stanislav Briza – visual artists, publisher and editor. Founder of the BFLMPSVZ Publishing platform. Among others projects he is currently working on a photography project Stay Hackney Wick and Stay High, both related to art community in East London. <http://www.sbriza.com>.

msdm is the publishing platform of artist paula roush, operating out of a warehouse in East London (Bow Creeks). paula creates photobookworks and curated ə/uh/-books, a project space that explored the reciprocal relationship between the gallery and the publication as exhibition spaces (London, May 216-2017). She is currently curating (with the collective Unstable Media/ Media Instaveis) the exhibition The Book Dispersed on artists' publishing to take place at Casa das Artes (Porto, Sept 2017) <http://www.msdm.org.uk/>

Magda Buczek is Warsaw-based multidisciplinary artist. Her projects often involve text, photography and tell multilayered stories about offline and online realities. Recurring themes are circling around post-feminist theories, body and persona and modern technologies. Her artist books were awarded photo selfpublication of the year in Poland (2014), shortlisted at MACK London (2014) and Photofestival in Athens (2015). Her works were exhibited among others in Berlin, London, New York and Mexico City. Currently, she is just about to start London Summer Intensive residency programme at Slade School of Arts. Agnieszka Szczotka is an artist based in London who works across a variety of mediums including performance, video, text, sculpture and curating. She studied Sculpture at Camberwell College of Arts and is about to start the postgraduate programme at the Royal Academy Schools in London. She was a co-founder of Amatorska - an exhibition space and curatorial project run in her flat. She's been a participant of various performative workshops organized by Live Art Development Agency. Her most recent shows include MONO, Artist Moving Image Initiative (Courtyard Theatre, London), 'Fade to Purple' (Chalton Gallery, London) and 'Solid Gone' (Back Room Gallery, London). <https://vimeo.com/agnieszkaszczotka>

Eliska Kyselková is a Czech fashion photographer currently based in London and talented young, emerging artist making head waves in the UK scene and abroad with her stylish representations of design and commentary on social abundance, consumerism and modern ideals of beauty. In her fashion work, she presents models as strong fearless women. Furthermore we can see her influence in religion, very clearly, within her projects balancing between fashion and fine art. More than a digital camera, Eliška extensively uses analogue cameras such as large format camera Sinar and medium format Bronica. Her work has been published in various magazines and publications such as Vogue Italia, Pylot, Pigeons&Peacocks and also online in Vogue Germany, i-D, Dazed&Confused and Wonderland. <http://www.eliskakyselkova.com/>

Polanski (Urbanum, B L A N C) was born deep in rural Poland. Polanski's music draws inspiration from the organic sounds of nature re-expressed in the musical language of our digital era. In his live modular session he tends to abandon dependence on a reason and gains an intuitive enlightenment for the process of improvisation. <https://www.facebook.com/urbanum.net>

SERA – music and visuals, will precise later

Bartosz Ciepaj (coffee tasting) is the founder of Dobre Ziarno and Molecular Coffee, a finalist at the UK Roasting Championship, barista, coffee trainer, founder of Coffee Cupping UK. During the session, you will learn about the amazing coffee journey from farm to cup and how to brew and taste your coffee.
